

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Greenwich Jaycees Announces Its New Board for 2009

GREENWICH, Connecticut (January 26, 2009) - The Greenwich Junior Chamber (Jaycees) has announced its 2009 Executive Board. Members include Stamford residents Albert Unger as President and Susan Parker as Community VP, and Greenwich residents Maria Larrea as Membership VP, Roger Farley as Management VP, and Cheryl Farley as Secretary. First-time board members welcomed include Stamford residents Giselle Leonard as Individual VP and Jay Ragusa as State Director, and Norwalk resident Matthew Tackman as Treasurer. Stamford resident Jonathan Reiss, who served as the 2008 President, will serve as Chairman in 2009.

For more information about the Greenwich Jaycees and its events or apply for membership, please call 203-358-3134, e-mail at info@greenwichjaycees.org, or visit www.greenwichjaycees.org.

ABOUT Greenwich Jaycees:

The Greenwich Jaycees provides young people opportunities for personal and professional development through local community service, networking, leadership training, and social events.

CONTACT:

Roger Farley

Greenwich Jaycees Management VP

Mobile: 203-241-4332

management@greenwichjaycees.org

<http://www.greenwichjaycees.org>

(front row, from left to right: Jay Ragusa, Albert Unger, and Matthew Tackman; back row, from left to right: Jonathan Reiss, Cheryl Farley, Giselle Leonard, Maria Larrea, and Roger Farley; not pictured: Susan Parker).

###